The Course

A championship golf course (6400 yards, Par 71 and S.S.72) originally designed by Bill White and remodelled by Peter McEvoy MBE former World Champion and Walker Cup Captain. A challenge to every level of golfer. Most holes give the hero a chance to 'go for it!'

The massive greens, fast and true, rightly regarded as the best in the area and, once reached, some giant contours await. To quote a national golf magazine: "the last 3 holes at Horsley create a finish that would not be out of place at a major".

It's a course that always demands another visit.
